Family-woven, Embroidered Textile - Laos - 1930

250 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Linen

Width : 40

Height : 140

Description

ANTIQUE EMBROIDERED TEXTILE - LAOS - CIRCA 1930A rare and elegant family heirloom woven on a small loom, combining a brick-colored hemp background with delicate silk embroidery.The design, rich in graphic detail, consists of geometric and stylized motifs arranged around a central architectural motif reminiscent of a palace. The piece as a whole demonstrates traditional textile craftsmanship and a remarkable sense of decorative composition.An antique piece of ethnographic interest, from the Guinaudeau Collection, which was notably featured in two exhibitions: in Poitiers in 2015, and then at the Abbey of Nanteuil-en-Vallée in 2017.Laos - circa 1930140 × 40 cm

Dealer

Wulfila Antiquités

Haute époque - Archéologie - Curiosités

Tel : 06 23 13 04 02

5 rue de l'Hôtel de Ville

Réalmont 81120