Description

Antique oval box made of gilded metal (brass or copper) dating from the 18th century, ideal as a snuff box or small collector's case. The hinged lid and the rim of the box are finely chiseled and engraved with characteristic neoclassical motifs, including vertical fluting, foliage garlands, and a central medallion. The interior retains a beautiful, authentic antique patina that bears witness to its past history. An elegant display piece with timeless charm, perfect for lovers of antiques and 18th-century tableware or parlor furnishings.
