Description

A charming little chest of drawers made of walnut veneer, rosewood, palisander, and native woods--either natural or stained--inlaid with a diamond pattern, friezes featuring four-leaf clover motifs, dotted patterns, etc., featuring two front drawers; the square-section side rails terminate in four tapered-leg feet, the entire piece featuring faux fluting (with some wear and restoration).Italy, last quarter of the 18th century.Good condition.With its straight lines and geometric motifs inspired by Greco-Roman antiquity, our chest of drawers is reminiscent of the works of the workshop of Giuseppe Maggiolini (1738-1814), who was Milan's leading cabinetmaker in the late 18th century.
