Description

Oil on canvas by Roger Montané (1916-2002), signed at the bottom center. The work is titled "Geneviève au Sacré-Coeur" and features vivid colors. Roger Montané was a French painter and engraver, born in Bordeaux on February 21, 1916, who passed away in Castelmaurou, near Toulouse, on July 14, 2002. After training at the École des Beaux-Arts in Toulouse, he continued his artistic development in Paris under the tutelage of the painter André Lhote. His body of work is characterized by a rich, figurative style in which light, landscapes, scenes of everyday life, and human figures play a central role. A traveler with a global perspective, he drew inspiration from his many stays in Italy, the Netherlands, Japan, the United States, and Iran. Well-regarded within the art world, he
