PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Roger Montané (1916-2002) - Oil On Canvas

750 EUR

Signature : Roger Montané (1916 - 2002)

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 100

Height : 81

Description

Roger MONTANÉ (1916-2002) - The Port of Sète Oil on canvas A beautiful painting by Roger Montané depicting a fishing port with several boats moored along the docks.Here, the artist presents a luminous and characterful composition, brought to life by broad brushstrokes and a particularly harmonious color palette.An expressive and colorful work that showcases Roger Montané's talent for capturing the atmosphere of landscapes and everyday settings.Roger Montané was a French painter and printmaker, born in Bordeaux on February 21, 1916, and who died in Castelmaurou, near Toulouse, on July 14, 2002.Trained at the École des Beaux-Arts in Toulouse, he continued his artistic career in Paris under the painter André Lhote.Well-regarded in the art world, he became

Dealer

Galerie Serventi

Tableaux Anciens, Achat, Vente, Expertise

Tel : 05 61 12 22 46

Mobile : 06 09 52 87 64

7 rue d'astorg

Toulouse 31000

president of the Salon d'Automne in 1966 and was appointed Painter to the Navy in 1979.His work, appreciated for its sensitivity, luminous palette, and expressive power, has been featured in numerous exhibitions in France and abroad, as well as in retrospectives at several museums.Dimensions: 81 x 100 cm