PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Louis Travert (1919) - Original Lithograph, Signed Title: Bouquet Of Roses

450 EUR

Signature : Louis Travert

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Vellum

Length : 97

Width : 79

Depth : 3

Description

A superb color lithograph by Louis Travert (1919), depicting a bouquet of red roses arranged in vases against a modern, nuanced background.Artist's proof EA 13/15, numbered and signed in pencil by the artist in the lower right corner.Technique: Color lithograph on art vellumLimited edition: Artist's proof (EA 13/15)Dimensions of the artwork alone: 69 × 51 cmDimensions when framed (with glass and mat): 97 × 79 cmPresentation: Unique, modern, high-quality framed print with glassCondition: Exceptional, vibrant colors, no visible deteriorationThis lithograph offers a pictorial rendering very similar to watercolor, with delicate transparencies and subtle nuances that enhance its refined and decorative character.A work in the modern figurative style, with decorative accents

Dealer

MELDEVA ART
Paintings, Sculptures, Drawings and Works of Art
Mobile : 0645891037

Victor Hugo
Mont-de-Marsan 40000

typical of the second half of the 20th century. Travert combines a free and colorful pictorial style with a clear floral composition, blending modernity and decorative tradition.BiographyLouis Travert (born in 1919 in Moigné, Ille-et-Vilaine) is a French painter and printmaker. His floral compositions and landscapes are characterized by a decorative sensibility and a subtle use of color. A renowned lithographer, he produced numerous prints sought after by collectors. His works regularly appear at public auctions and are featured in several private collections.Secure shipping with insurance and careful packaging.In-person pickup available.