Mounted Under Alsatian Glass--18th Century

200 EUR

Signature : Alsacien

Period : 18th century

Condition : Parfait état

Width : 24,5 cm

Height : 31 cm

Description

Mounted under 18th-century Alsatian glass A panel mounted under glass depicting Saint Luke (Lucas). This saint is traditionally depicted with a bull, as is the case here. The design is complemented by a crown bearing a cross and flowers that frame the central cartouche. The frame is made of blackened molded wood.In perfect condition. Note that the back, traditionally made of fir wood, has been replaced with modern cardboard.Frame dimensions: 31 cm x 24.5 cmGlass dimensions: 25 cm x 18.5 cm

Dealer

Chaumont Claude

antiquités 16 ème siècle au 20ème siècle.

Mobile : 0685827789

6 rue pasteur

Abbécourt 02300