Description

A Timeless Work of ArtThe extraordinary beauty and timeless elegance of this 18th-century walnut bookcase, sourced directly from the charming Palazzo Romano, represent the pinnacle of antique cabinetmaking. This magnificent piece of furniture majestically combines the functionality of a large structure with the refined lines typical of the era, offering a unique visual impact in any prestigious setting.Excellence and CraftsmanshipThe piece measures 305x56xh260 cm and is in excellent overall condition, a testament to the sturdiness and artisanal craftsmanship of the materials used. Despite its substantial size, the bookcase is particularly practical and functional thanks to its division into three sections--a clever solution that greatly facilitates transport and assembly without
