Spanish Folk Art (circa 1900) - "watch Out For The Bull"

300 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting on wood

Description

- Oil on panel.- Between the wine skin being passed from hand to hand and the mocking laughter of the majas, the appearance of the bull at the top of the hill was little more than a typical scare during an Andalusian picnic. Amid the typical jokes and grand gestures, more than one person hurried to grab the tortilla and invoke all the saints; meanwhile, the biggest braggart of the group brandished his wineskin toward the horizon, as if to challenge the beast, thereby signaling that they feared the animal only as much as necessary, but that they would never turn their backs on a good cigar or a feast.- Dimensions of the artwork without frame: 33 x 23 cm / 41 x 30.5 cm with an exclusive, custom-made frame.
