Description

PAIR OF GILDED BRONZE TRAYS WITH POLYCHROME CLOISONNÉ ENAMEL, ATTRIBUTED TO ALPHONSE GIROUX
Napoleon III period, circa 1860-1870A pair of oval trays in finely chiseled and gilded bronze, enhanced by remarkable polychrome cloisonné enamel decoration. Each tray is adorned with richly colored floral compositions that stand out against a delicately textured gilded background.The borders feature a refined arabesque ornamentation in shades of turquoise, cobalt blue, and pastel tones. The ensemble is highlighted by an openwork gilded bronze frame, embellished with side handles and decorative motifs inspired by the Rococo style.With its high-quality craftsmanship, precise bronze work, and rich ornamentation, this pair is reminiscent of
