Description

A Baroque walnut console table dating from the early 18th century, originating from Italy. The design features a half-moon-shaped top, skillfully supported by three shaped legs that join at the base via a finely carved crosspiece. The structure shows signs of restoration, reflecting the care and attention devoted to its preservation over time. The use of walnut gives the piece a warm, natural tone, enhanced by a period patina that highlights its elegance and historical character. Ideal for enhancing spaces with a touch of authentic Baroque style.Product condition:Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and re-polishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos. If certain details are not clear from the photos, the information provided in the
