Description

A superb and authentic Art Deco period chandelier from the famous Muller Frères factory in Lunéville. This exceptional piece features a wrought-iron frame with clean, geometric lines, typical of the modernist movement of the 1920s and 1930s. Lighting is provided by a central hexagonal bowl and six matching satellite shades, all made of molded and pressed glass featuring geometric and stylized designs. The glasswork diffuses a warm and harmonious light. Several components bear the embossed signature of the "Muller Frères Lunéville" manufacturer, guaranteeing the chandelier's authenticity (see photos). Configuration: 1 central bowl with 3 lights and 6 faux shades (9 light points total; bulbs not included). Dimensions: total diameter approximately 64 cm, total height approximately
