PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Large Two-section Glass-fronted Sideboard In The Henri II Style

350 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted wood

Width : 154

Height : 237

Depth : 56

Description

Large two-section glass-fronted sideboard in the Henri II style - Late 19th century An imposing and elegant two-section sideboard in the Henri II style, dating from the late 19th century, featuring beautiful architecture with turned columns and a painted finish in a soft off-white shade.The upper section, crowned by a substantial molded cornice with stepped projections, opens with two glass-paned doors framed by geometric moldings. It is flanked by small columns and features a dark wood-toned interior.The middle section is adorned with an elegant railing of small turned balusters, framed by two carved posts shaped like vases.The lower section features two drawers running around the base, fitted with antique metal handles, as well as two large doors with molded panels adorned with relief carvings.The piece

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent

Dun les Places 58230

rests on ball-shaped legs and features numerous architectural details characteristic of historicist furniture from the late 19th century.This generously sized sideboard offers ample storage space and will naturally find its place in a dining room, a large country kitchen, or a charming home.Period: late 19th centuryStyle: Henri II, Renaissance.Finish: off-white painted wood.Dimensions:Height: 237 cmWidth: 154 cmDepth: 56 cmCondition: shows signs of use; paint has some visible marks and minor wear