PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Empire-style Secretary Desk In Burl Walnut

850 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Wallnut

Width : 96

Height : 149

Depth : 49

Description

Empire-Period Writing Desk in Burl Walnut - Early 19th Century A magnificent Empire-period writing desk with a drop-leaf top, dating from the first half of the 19th century, featuring a beautiful burl walnut front with particularly spectacular and symmetrical grain patterns.This elegant piece stands out for the richness of its wood, the finesse of its design, and the quality of its interior layout.The upper section is crowned by an overhanging molded cornice, surmounting a belt drawer discreetly integrated into the front.The central flap, adorned with a brass keyhole, reveals a remarkably architecturally designed interior, featuring small columns with capitals and gilded brass rings.The interior features several storage compartments, a series of small drawers, and niches, all highlighted by a burgundy red

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent

Dun les Places 58230

fabric-lined back.The flap forms a generous writing surface lined with a dark green leather desk pad, accented by an elegant gold border.The lower section comprises three stacked drawers, fitted with brass pull knobs and lock plates. The entire piece rests on a solid base, framed by straight legs with consoles characteristic of furniture from this period.This secretary desk captivates with its harmonious proportions, its magnificent wood grain patterns, and its particularly decorative interior.A truly beautiful collector's piece, ideal for an office, living room, or library.Period: Empire--first half of the 19th century, circa 1820Wood: burl walnutOrnamentation: gilded bronze fittings, interior columns, and a green leather desk pad (one tear visible in the photo).Dimensions:Height: 149 cmWidth: 96 cmDepth: 49 cmCondition: overall in fine condition, with a warm patina.