Description

Carved Oak Bookcase with Twisted Columns - Louis XIII Style - 19th Century A beautiful and elegant bookcase made of solid carved oak in the Louis XIII style, dating from the second half of the 19th century.This two-part piece stands out for its rich carving, slender proportions, and beautiful brown patina.The upper section features a glass door framed by two imposing twisted columns, characteristic of the Louis XIII style. It is surmounted by a large overhanging cornice, adorned with dentil moldings and carved friezes.The upper panel is richly decorated with foliage scrolls, flowers, and a central mascaron. The spandrels of the glass door are also embellished with plant-motif carvings.The interior of the display cabinet features three wooden shelves, ideal for displaying porcelain,
