Mahogany Desk With Lyre-shaped Legs - Empire Period

800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : En l'etat

Material : Mahogany

Width : 113

Height : 86

Depth : 70

Description

Mahogany Desk, Lyre-Shaped Legs - Empire Period, 19th Century Beautiful mahogany desk from the Empire period, dating from the 19th century.This piece stands out for its elegant design and its distinctive base featuring four strongly curved legs, ending in scrolls that evoke the shape of a lyre.The rectangular top with chamfered corners is upholstered in antique fawn-colored leather (worn), accented by a delicate gold frieze in fine repoussé.The front features three drawers, two of which are on the sides and fitted with metal ring handles, and a central drawer with a keyhole.The entire piece is accented with fine marquetry bands that add an extra touch of refinement.The opposite side is adorned with two winged creatures facing each other, framed by long, leafy branches in gilded

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent

Dun les Places 58230

bronze--a particularly elegant, antique-inspired design.The base features beautiful carving with harmonious curves and volute finials.This piece can be used as a desk or a coffee table; its decoration on both sides allows it to be displayed in the center of a room.Beautiful antique patina with warm tones.Characteristics:Period: 19th century.Style: Empire.Wood: mahoganyTop upholstered in fawn-colored leather with a gilded border.Three drawers on the front.Decorative marquetry bands.Gilded bronze ornaments featuring winged creatures and foliage motifs.Four curved, scroll-adorned legs in a lyre shape.Decorated on both sides.Dimensions:Width: 113 cmHeight: 86 cmDepth: 70 cmCondition:In good overall condition, with signs of use and original patina. Leather shows wear consistent with its age.Needs cleaning and polishingAn elegant, characterful desk with harmonious proportions, ideal for a classic interior or a refined decor.