Description

The pair of Suitcase armchairs, designed by Rodolfo Dordoni for Minotti in the 1990s, is a significant example of Italian design from that period. The leather upholstery, combined with foam padding, offers enveloping comfort, while the chrome-plated metal legs add a touch of modernity and sturdiness. Although they show some signs of wear typical of use and age, these armchairs retain their functionality and original charm. Ideal for spaces that favor sophisticated design, the Suitcase armchairs blend naturally into contemporary living rooms or areas dedicated to relaxation.MOSEPO0330027
