well-suited for hallways and long entryways, also makes it suitable for a reception room.Shows signs of age with wear on the pile and borders. Colors are fresh and well-preserved. No holes. The rug has not been cleaned and is presented in its current condition.Good condition for its age; see photos.Persian rugs from Hamadan and neighboring regions are prized for their geometric patterns, floral medallions, and deep colors. This large antique Oriental rug, also known as a gallery rug, hallway rug, runner, or carpet path, belongs to the tradition of village rugs from northwestern Persia. Its design bears similarities to carpets from Karadja, Heriz, and certain Caucasian productions. Hand-knotted wool Persian carpets from the first half of the 20th century remain a decorative asset for classic interiors, historic homes, and contemporary designs. This long hallway rug, measuring over four meters, combines a traditional Oriental design, stylized floral motifs, and a palette of red and midnight blue in colors that remain fresh and vibrant.Dimensions: 410 × 100 cm.
