Polychrome Earthenware Planter With A Nautical Design In The Veuve Perrin Style

240 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Earthenware

Length : 35cm

Height : 13cm

Depth : 19 cm

Description

A charming oval planter made of polychrome French earthenware, resting on small feet and featuring two side handles with scroll motifs.The front is adorned with a hand-painted seascape depicting a figure on the shore, sailing boats, and mountains on the horizon.The design is accented by delicate pink borders featuring geometric patterns and small flowers.Marked "VP" in red and inscribed "France" on the reverse.French work from the late 19th century to the first half of the 20th century, in the style of antique Marseille earthenware.Dimensions:Length: 35 cmDepth: 19 cmHeight: 13 cm

Dealer

Cimiez Antiquités

FRANCE ANTIQUES

Tel : 0423358119

Mobile : 0771785219

28 rue Catherine Ségurane

Nice 06000