Length : 25

Width : 20

Height : 18

Description

An imposing and rare tabletop snuff mull, crafted from a spectacular, naturally spiraled ram's horn and dating to the second half of the 19th century.

The opening is finished with a silver mount, hand-engraved with botanical and floral motifs, and topped with a hinged lid featuring a sculptural lion's head finial. The tip of the horn is fitted with a decorative silver ferrule, matching the mount at the opening.

A striking collector's piece--perfect for a cabinet de curiosités--representative of 19th-century Scottish craftsmanship.
