Description

A beautiful 19th-century painting by Charles Labor.A prominent 19th-century painter from southern France, known particularly for his landscapes of the Hérault region. A native of Béziers (1813-1900), he served as curator of the Museum of Fine Arts in his hometown in 1859 and participated in the 1839 Salon. He was president of the Archaeological, Scientific, and Literary Society of Béziers.Works in the collections of the museums in Angers, Béziers, Cannes, and Narbonne. A high-quality work, notable for its subject--a Mediterranean landscape--and its lively quality. Signed lower right and dated; inscription on the back by the art dealer. Excellent condition and never restored. Can be shipped within France and internationally via secure, insured package with tracking. Invoice
