Guttus, Magna Graecia

950 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

Greater Greece or Southern Italy; a ceramic guttus covered with a black glaze, typical of the 4th/3rd century BCE. The decoration consists of a relief medallion depicting Dionysus (with bunches of grapes in his hair), all resting on a circular foot with a red slip. The globular body features a ring-shaped handle and a spout ending in a trumpet-shaped rim. Height: 7 cm for the main body, 12 cm for the spout, and 10 cm for the handle. The entire piece measures 11 cm in diameter, 7 cm of which is the base.
