PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Japan, Mid-19th Century - Large Lacquered Panel Depicting A Scene Of Warriors

850 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Lacquer

Width : 59

Height : 111,5

Description

Japan, mid-19th century - Large lacquered panel depicting warriorsAn interesting and refined Japanese lacquered wood panel dating from the mid-19th century, during the Edo period.The panel features rich gilded decoration on a black background, depicting a historical or legendary episode from the Japanese warrior tradition, with seven armed warriors portrayed in a dynamic scene set among traditional buildings, pavilions, and trees.At the top is an ancient inscription in Japanese characters, referring to the subject depicted.The composition stands out for its rich detail, the elegance of its design, and the striking contrast between the black lacquer background and the refined gold decorations.The panel is set within a magnificent carved wooden frame, decorated at the corners with floral and plant

Dealer

Gabriele e Gionata Retini

Furniture, paintings, sculptures, objets d'art, chandeliers, antiques

Tel : 3395268391

Via Marco Polo 147

Bientina - Pisa 56031

motifs and featuring profiles reminiscent of bamboo stalks.The reverse side is also particularly interesting, entirely decorated with a gilded composition depicting vases, flowers, and traditional Japanese objects.A work of great charm and remarkable decorative presence, a testament to the refined Japanese artistic production of the 19th century.It shows signs of age and wear consistent with its period.Provenance: Japan.Period: mid-19th century, Edo period.Material: lacquered wood with gilded decorations.Dimensions:- Height: 111.5 cm- Width: 59 cm