Description

Émile GALLÉ (1846-1904) / Établissements GalléArt Nouveau Flattened Soliflore Vase - "Dragonfly and Water Lilies"Flattened flask-shaped soliflore (oval cross-section) vase, with an elongated cylindrical neck terminating in a slightly flared rim, in multi-layered cameo art glass, acid-etched in relief.The design, in a soft matte chartreuse and celadon green base shading into pale misty blue at the neck, over-laid with deep aubergine-brown acid-cut details, is depicting a poetic wetland scene showing a detailed dra-gonfly in flight--its segmented tail arching gracefully up the neck--hovering above a marsh composed of blossoming water lilies, broad pads, and reeds.Cameo signature "Gallé" etched in relief within the pond landscape Art Nouveau Period, circa 1905-1910Excellent
