Description

A Barocchetto-style freestanding mirror, crafted from carved, lacquered, and gilded wood, dating from the late 19th century in Italy. The molded frame features intricate scroll and curl carvings, embellished with elegant floral and foliage motifs. The contrast between the gold and the ochre-colored lacquered background gives the piece a refined appearance, typical of the period. Ideal for spaces that call for a touch of sophisticated historical elegance.Product condition:Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos. If certain details are not clear from the photos, the information provided in the description takes precedence.
