Description

This walnut and burl trumeau, crafted in Italy in the early 20th century, exudes timeless elegance thanks to its refined details. The upper section features mirrored doors and two drawers below, while the top panel has a central mirrored insert, embellished with volute and scroll moldings that add a touch of sophistication. The base, with its curved front and sides, includes a drop-down door that reveals an interior compartment with four drawers and a central open shelf, offering both practicality and style. Below, three drawers provide additional storage space. The plinth-style legs ensure stability, while the metal handles, knobs, and vent add decorative detail. The fir wood interior completes the piece, ensuring durability and quality.Product condition:This piece of furniture requires restoration and
