Fragment Of A Tapestry From 17th-century Brussels

1 150 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Silk

Width : 42

Height : 130

Description

A lovely fragment of a silk tapestry featuring putti against a background of vine leaves and grape clusters, topped with fruit.The design is very delicate, and the weave is made of shimmering silk thread.The tapestry is backed and framed with a carved and gilded wooden moldings in the Bérain style.Brussels.17th century.Very decorative.

Dealer

Antiquités Véronique Trindade

Antiquaire généraliste

Tel : 06 07 36 20 53

18, Avenue de la République

Beaune 21200