Abel Fabre. French Painter And Sculptor, 19th-20th Centuries. Terracotta Sculpture, 1914

580 EUR

Signature : Abel Fabre

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Terracotta

Height : 25

Description

Abel Fabre (1846-1922)A sculptor of the Toulouse School,he was born in Blagnac, near Toulouse.He trained at the Toulouse School of Fine Artsand in Adolphe Azibert's studio.In 1868, he continued his studies in Paris.He studied under François Jouffroyand Alexandre Falguière.He then worked primarily in Toulouse.He exhibited at the Salon des Artistes Français,where he received an honorable mention in 1886.His body of work includes portraits,allegorical works, and religious sculptures.He also created monumental decorative works,notably for the Toulouse School of Fine Artsand the Musée des Augustins.His work is part of theFrench figurative tradition of the Belle Époque.This terracotta piece, signed "Fabre" and dated 1914,

Dealer

Delahaye antiquités
Généraliste 19th 20 th
Mobile : +33628330196

18 avenue Trudaine
Paris 75009