Georgian-era Gold Pendant (first Empire Or Earlier) Featuring A Grisaille Painting

1 150 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gold

Length : 4.3cm

Width : 2.1cm

Description

A Georgian-era gold pendant (First Empire or earlier), set with small Pearls and a Grisaille painting depicting a woman with a sheep.A grisaille portrait is a painting executed in shades of gray.The portrait of the woman with her sheep symbolizes maternal love, mourning, romanticism, innocence, and religious devotion.DimensionsTested at 9 karats, unhallmarked, which is normal for a piece of this age.Weight: 9.76 g4.3 cm x 2.1 cm.Comes with a Certificate of Authenticity and in a new box.Free shipping within France.

Dealer

Encore une Fois
Bijoux Anciens
Mobile : 0671027148

32 Rue Puyjoli de Meyjounissas
Brantôme en Périgord 24310