French Travel Clock With Alarm - Early 20th Century

450 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Width : 8

Height : 12

Depth : 6

Description

French Travel Clock with Alarm - Early 20th CenturyElegant French travel clock, also known as a "marescialla" or "pendule d'officier," dating from the early 20th century.It features a refined gilded brass case with classic architectural lines, embellished with a sculpted top handle and large glass panels that allow you to admire the mechanical movement inside.The white enamel dial features black Arabic numerals and slender burnished steel hands. At the bottom is a small secondary dial for setting the alarm.The mechanical movement is visible through the side and top glass panels, which also allow you to observe the balance wheel.Of particular interest is its travel case, covered on the outside with leather-effect material featuring geometric decoration and lined on the inside with red velvet,

Dealer

Gabriele e Gionata Retini

Furniture, paintings, sculptures, objets d'art, chandeliers, antiques

Tel : 3395268391

Via Marco Polo 147

Bientina - Pisa 56031

complete with a key.A refined example of early 20th-century French clockmaking, appreciated both for its craftsmanship and the elegance of its proportions.The pendulum clock is in perfect working order and is in excellent condition.Period: Early 20th centuryOrigin: FranceMaterial: Gilded brass, glass, and enamelHeight: 12 cmWidth: 8 cmDepth: 6 cmComes complete with travel case and key.