Description

Important solid silver tableware set consisting of 18 plates. Plates featuring a contoured design and edged with a frieze of ovals; the rims are engraved with the Pastré family coat of arms framed by rams, along with their motto "ADJUVANTE DEO," all stamped with a Count's Crown. Each plate bears the Minerva hallmark for 1st Title (.950) and the hallmark of master silversmith Edouard FOURNERET (a hallmark featuring the initials "EF" and a sheep). The set is presented in its beautiful oak case, featuring handles, with a lid bearing a shield engraved with the coat of arms. An important heraldic silverware set in good overall condition, complete, and presented in its magnificent original case. A true marvel to discover through the attached photos....Coat of Arms of the Pastré
