Description

Bamboo side table. Its lacquered tabletop is octagonal or beveled. Its central painted design depicts a naturalistic scene in the Japanese style: two herons at the water's edge in front of a tree with a gnarled trunk; the scene is highlighted by gold borders.The table's base is made entirely of bamboo, assembled into an architecturally designed structure with multiple crossbars.This table reflects the taste for Far Eastern arts and decorative exoticism that characterized European interiors in the late 19th century.
