Description

Elegant Tuscan walnut sideboard dating from the early 19th century. The piece features two doors and a drawer in the upper frieze, decorated with a series of rectangular panels. The structure is enhanced by panelled decoration extending across the sides and the notched uprights, lending the piece a distinctive architectural rhythm. The top is finished with a refined Dupont-moulded edge. This sideboard is particularly appealing for the quality of its craftsmanship and the warm tones of the walnut.Origin: Tuscany, early 19th centuryDimensions: 135 × 46 cm; height 112 cm
