Description

A great, intriguing, and well-crafted item. I can't say exactly what it was used for, but I think it's a tool holder, or a flag or banner holder. Made from a wide strip of leather rolled around itself, it is riveted at the top and bottom with copper and brass. At the top, a brass band riveted with copper holds a loop for hanging--on a belt, for example. In generally good condition, with some minor cracking on the leather and various stains that I didn't dare to clean. Nice genuine patina.. European craftsmanship, dating from the 19th century. Dimensions: 51 cm H x 4.5 cmSHIPPING CONDITIONS BELOW FREE shipping within France; European shipping and payment only--please send me a message.. I no longer ship outside of Europe, and I do not accept payments from outside Europe either!! Contact:
