Description

A double-leaf wooden door of considerable decorative interest, characterized by an architectural structure with a shaped upper cornice and a polygonal arched profile. Each of the two door leaves features three overlapping panels, embellished with relief-molded frames featuring mixed-line profiles and beveled corners.The surface retains a polychrome finish in shades of ivory, beige, and brown, with traces of patina, wear, and layers of the original decoration. The structure is completed by a sturdy perimeter wooden frame and a central lock with traditional hardware.The weathered appearance and the preservation of the finishes lend the piece a distinct historical and antique character.Dimensions with frame: 120 cm W x 227 cm H Clear opening: 101 cm W x 215 cm H
