Description

Carved facade: Magnificent bas-relief carving featuring a design of flamboyant Gothic arcades. The façade is organized into four large sections featuring openwork windows with bellows and mouchettes motifs, resting on a balustrade with vertical columns. The center features the keyhole under a counter-curved pointed arch.Original Ironwork & Assembly: Period wrought-iron lock plate and latch. The solid one-piece walnut top panel features wrought-iron hinges secured with dowels and forged nails.Structure & Assembly: Traditional assembly with visible dovetail joints at the corners and a grooved bottom panel. The chest rests on two transverse oak runners--likely added later--that ensure stability.Condition: In fine, authentic condition for a piece of furniture from this early period.
