Description

Art Deco platinum bracelet set with old-cut diamonds - France, circa 1920A splendid Art Deco platinum bracelet, crafted in France circa 1920, entirely set with old-cut diamonds for an estimated total weight of 5 carats.This bracelet stands out for its elegant geometric design, characteristic of 1920s jewelry. It features a series of articulated rectangular links, arranged in staggered rows and entirely set with diamonds, creating a particularly harmonious interplay of lines and volumes.At the center, a wider rectangular motif, paved with diamonds, accentuates the design and highlights the bracelet's perfect symmetry.The precision of the hinged construction ensures great flexibility, allowing the piece to naturally conform to the curve of the wrist.
