Description

An impressive French wood-paneled sideboard with twelve doors, from the LouisXV period, crafted from solid oak and featuring a magnificent natural patina with grayish hues. This monumental piece stands out for its and its elegant, recessed central section. The four upper central doors feature delicate scroll-cut frames adorned with a fine metal lattice work, flanked by doors with molded panels. The beautiful antique hardware, the imposing cornice, andthe refined detailsbear witness to the craftsmanship and elegance of 18th-centuryFrench furniture.
