Pocket Flintlock Pistol With A Lockbox - Empire Period / Early 19th Century.

480 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Other

Description

Travel/pocket flintlock pistol with a box-type lock (Scottish-style), dating from the late 18th or early 19th century.Mechanical condition: Excellent. The mechanism is fully functional with firm springs. The cocked and half-cocked positions are crisp and distinct. The sliding safety at the rear of the hammer is present and functional.Markings: No visible markings or gunsmith's signature (handcrafted period piece, likely from Saint-Étienne or Liège).Finish & Decorations: The steel receiver features fine scrollwork engravings that are still very clear. The round barrel is in excellent condition with a beautiful patina.Wood: Walnut stock with a very beautiful original checkering, sound and free of cracks.- Category D. Black powder. Available for sale to those 18 and older.No sales abroad.

Dealer

Le grenier du passé présent
Antiquité. Généraliste.
Tel : 0323700142

1 rue du Gué
Pavant 02310

(prohibited by customs)