Description

An elegant sculpture depicting a bather seated in a graceful pose, clad in a delicately draped garment that reveals her shoulders and legs. Her hair frames a face with delicate features. The composition rests on a naturalistic base evoking a rock. The work displays classical inspiration, with a pursuit of balance, softness, and refinement in the spirit of the 18th century.Signed by both Ferdinand Cian (1889-1954) and Louis Simon Boizot (1743-1809).Late 19th century, Louis XV style
