Description

Oil on panel depicting an interior--presumably a bedroom--in a traditional southern French home. The scene shows a room with weathered gray walls and simple furnishings; on the left, an open window overlooks a Provençal landscape.On the right is a wrought-iron bed adorned with a colorful quilt; at the foot of the bed, a small rug covers the terracotta floor tiles. Nearby, a nightstand completes the furnishings.Signed "Coussens" in the lower left corner.On the back, the artist added the inscription "La chambre de la vieille Manon ou Hanon."Armand Coussens (1881-1935) was a French painter, engraver, and illustrator born in the Gard department.Trained at the Beaux-Arts in Nîmes, he lived in Paris from 1900 to 1907 before returning to settle in the Midi, where he taught and developed his body of
