Description

A beautiful Louis XV-era chest of drawers, bearing the mark of cabinetmaker François Fleury.It features a curved front with three drawers arranged in two rows, adorned with richly hued wood veneer marquetry and finely chiseled gilded bronze hardware.It rests on arched legs and retains a beautiful elegance of lines and proportions.Its marble top, which was added later, does not match the quality of craftsmanship of this chest of drawers and would benefit from being replaced with marble more appropriate to its period and style.
