Genre Scene, Late 18th Century, Early 19th Century

650 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting

Length : 45 cm

Width : 37 cm

Description

Elegant genre scene - View of an old courtyard bustling with figures18th-century oil on canvas, depicting a charming scene of daily life in the inner courtyard of an old residence.The composition is organized around a remarkable architectural perspective, viewed from a dark, vaulted passageway that frames a light-filled courtyard. In the foreground, the dim light of the arcade contrasts harmoniously with the warm, luminous tones of the courtyard's facades.At the center of the scene, two figures bring this composition to life: a young woman wearing a blue dress and a red bonnet, drawing water from a well or fountain, while a man in a brown coat stands nearby.The architecture, rendered in great detail, features historic facades with small-paned windows, a gate with a grille, slate roofs, and

Dealer

Galerie Leroy
Antiquaire Généraliste Mobiliers du XVIIIe , XIXe et Objets d'Art
Mobile : 06 46 43 45 93

Remiremont 88200

stone paving that accentuates the depth of the perspective.The artist has delicately captured the peaceful atmosphere of a courtyard in an old estate, brought to life by these two figures in a moment of everyday life.One will appreciate the subtle interplay of light and shadow, the skillful construction of the perspective, and the warm color palette dominated by ochres, browns, and golden yellows.The canvas features a beautiful network of old craquelure, attesting to its age, and retains its gilded wooden frame.A charming example of 18th-century genre and architectural painting.Period: 18th century (attribution to be confirmed).Technique: Oil on canvas.Subject: Genre scene in an old courtyard, featuring two figures.Frame: Antique gilded wood frame.The recently installed baguette frame measures 46 cm x 37 cm The canvas measures 41 cm x 32 cm