Description

Large, trapezoidal-shaped hanging lantern, crafted from moss-green lacquered iron and featuring panels of patterned glass with fine vertical grooves.Thanks to its refined design, this lantern perfectly embodies the Italian taste of the 1950s through the 1970s for understated, architectural forms combined with delicate decorative details: the metal frame is embellished with an elegant scroll motif, crafted from thin, curved iron rod, which accentuates the object's upper and lower profiles.The patterned glass, featuring a striated relief, diffuses the light, creating subtle effects of transparency.Hanging in an entryway, foyer, veranda, or above a staircase, this lantern will lend an elegant and refined presence to any type of setting, whether classic or contemporary.The electrical system has recently
