Description

Two decorative black-glazed ceramic pitchers - Polychrome decoration - 20th century A charming set of two black-glazed ceramic pitchers, featuring original and complementary shapes, adorned with stylized designs in shades of orange and creamy yellow.The first has a rounded body topped by a wide, flared, and undulating opening with wavy edges. Its decoration consists of volutes, spirals, and stylized plant motifs.The second, with a more bulbous shape, has a pronounced spout and a large twisted handle forming an elegant arch. Its body is decorated with a large, radiating floral motif accompanied by stylized foliage.Both pieces feature a beautiful glossy black glaze that contrasts harmoniously with the warm colors of the ornamentation.Their aesthetic evokes 20th-century European
