PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Large Earthenware Dish With Military Drum Design - In The Nevers Style - 19th Century

120 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Earthenware

Diameter : 39

Description

Large Earthenware Dish with Military Drummer Design - In the Nevers Style - 19th Century A charming large, deep dish made of antique earthenware, with a wavy and slightly scalloped rim, featuring a hand-painted polychrome design depicting a military drummer in uniform.The figure, wearing a tall plume and a blue uniform with gold epaulets, is depicted standing and playing the drum in a rural landscape adorned with stylized trees.The decoration, rendered in a palette of cobalt blue, ochre yellow, brown, and black, evokes popular French earthenware productions of the 18th and 19th centuries, particularly those from Nevers.The rim of the dish is accented with several circular blue bands and a decorative frieze in ochre and brown.The reverse features a molded decoration with twisted

Dealer

Tino antiquites
Mobilier
Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent
Dun les Places 58230

ribs and an unglazed circular base.A beautiful piece of decorative earthenware, particularly interesting for its military subject matter and folk character.Characteristics:Origin: France, in the style of Nevers earthenwarePeriod: 19th centuryMaterial: glazed earthenware with polychrome decorationDecoration: military figure playing the drumDiameter: 39 cmCondition: original condition with signs of wear, chipping, and small chips visible around the rim.