Gate To The Gendarmerie Barracks - Berry, Early 19th Century

1 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Width : 86 cm

Height : 215 cm

Description

Authentic detention cell door fromthe former marshal's office in a village in the Berry region.Dating from the early19th century (Consulate or First Empire period). A rare example ofprison architecture and rural French judicial history.Dimensions Height: 215 cm Width: 86 cm Folk-style ironwork: A sturdy structure made of heavy wrought iron, characterized by afully hot-riveted assembly. The rivet work and the textureof the hand-forged iron perfectly reflect the craftsmanship of the masterblacksmiths of the early 19th century. Equipped in the center with its original inspection hatch (orsurveillance window), mounted on riveted hinges and featuring itsexternal locking system. Key not included. Features its imposing original mounting hinges. *Superb patina of age;

Dealer

Antiquités Jacques Coeur

Antiquités

Mobile : 0767227236

16 rue Jean Moulin

Foëcy 18500

sound metal exhibiting natural surface oxidation. Unrestored piece,preserved in the condition in which it was discovered.Its standard dimensions (215 x 86 cm) Its provenance from the Berry mounted police lends it an added sense ofhistorical character