A brass cup, an example of a sports and motorsports memorabilia piece from the late 1920s. On the central body, within an oval recess, stands out the dynamic figure of a motorcyclist in full flight. The depiction is rich in period details, such as the rider's technical gear and the aerodynamic silhouette of the motorcycle, which perfectly capture the sense of motion and the pioneering spirit of the earliest two-wheeled competitions. The reverse bears an important commemorative inscription engraved in German. "HERENPREIS DES OTC WINTER-WERUNGSFAHRT 1928 DES HARLEY DAVIDSON CLUB" (Honorary Prize of the 1928 OTC Winter Regularity Race of the Harley-Davidson Club).
