Low Valenciennes Sideboard In Solid Oak, Louis XV Style. Late 18th Century

880 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oak

Length : 166cm

Height : 124cm

Depth : 53cm

Description

Regional sideboard in solid oak, Louis XV style, late 18th century, likely from the Valenciennes region or Hainaut.This sideboard features an elegant front with two doors of molded panels, adorned at the top with foliage carvings and scrollwork motifs characteristic of 18th-century regional furniture. A central, molded, carved frame. The upper section features three drawers, including a small central drawer, highlighted by beautiful, flowing moldings and adorned with decorative metal handles.The particularly elegant lower rail features cut-out and fretwork decoration, resting on curved legs that extend from the side posts.The piece retains its traditional dowel joints as well as its original back panel made of vertical boards.The interior offers ample storage space with shelves.The right

Dealer

GRFAntiquités
Généraliste
Mobile : 0628589727

1 rue des 2 ponts
Bacouel-sur-Selle 80460

door has a lock with a working key, while the left door closes with an interior latch.This sideboard stands out for its balanced proportions, the delicacy of its carvings, and its beautiful oak patina with warm tones, which particularly highlights the wood's grain.In good overall condition, with the usual signs of use and age.A beautiful regional piece of furniture, both decorative and functional, showcasing the craftsmanship of cabinetmakers from northern France. Dimensions Height: 124 cm Width: 166 cm Depth: 53 cm Delivery within mainland France: EUR180. Contact us for more information.