PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Complete Persian Armor From The Qajar Dynasty (18th/19th Century)

6 140 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Wrought iron

Diameter : 47

Height : 27

Description

Complete Persian Armor from the Qajar Dynasty (18th/19th century)This complete set of armor, dating from the Qajar Dynasty (18th/19th century), is made of steel richly inlaid with silver and gold. It consists of three main components:The helmet (kulah-khud): a one-piece, bell-shaped helmet featuring a quadrangular visor, a removable nose guard, and chain mail protecting the nape of the neck.The shield (sipar): a round steel shield adorned with four umbons and featuring a finely engraved and inlaid surface.The armguard (bazu-band): an elongated forearm guard, decorated with identical geometric and calligraphic motifs.Condition: Very good, nearly perfect.Origin: Persia, turn of the 18th/19th centuries.Dimensions: Shield diameter: 47 cm; Helmet height: approx. 27

Dealer

Antiques and Art-Lion

Sale of antiques, furniture, clocks, paintings

Mobile : +48608466740

12 Marca 211

Wejherowo 84-200

cm.The gallery issues a certificate for each item.